

Reconsidering Legal Subjectivity In and Through the Anthropocene

International Conference organized by the Research Network Law in the Anthropocene (“Recht im Anthropozän”)

27–28 November 2025, Goethe University Frankfurt

Location 27th Nov. → Normative Orders Building | Room EG.01

Location 28th Nov. → Guesthouse Frauenlobstraße 1 | Villa Cahn

Thursday, 27th November 2025 (→ Normative Orders Building)

11.00-11.30	Welcome & Introduction
11.30-13.00	Panel I. Trans/Local Knowledge Production: Indigenous Ecologies and Traveling Legal Theories (Moderation by Laura Affolter) • 11.30-12.15 Rights of Nature – Traveling Theories and Critical (Legal) Knowledge Production in Catastrophic Times (Anette Mehlhorn , MPI for Social Anthropology) • 12.15-13.00 At the Crossroads of the Anthropocene and Abya Yala: Extractivism, Energy Transitions, and Indigenous Ecologies (Verónica Zuccarelli Freire , MPI of Geoanthropology)
13.00-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-15.30	Panel II. Challenging Legal Subjectivity? Waves and Fungi (Moderation by Andreas Gutmann) • 14.00-14.45 Do Waves Have Rights? On Energetic Processes and the Law (Andrea Mühlbach , University of Bremen) • 14.45-15.30 Beyond Trees and Rivers: Fungi and the Future of Rights of Nature (Anna-Julia Saiger , University of Freiburg)
15.30-16.00	Coffee Break
16.00-17.30	Panel III. Stretching Legal Subjectivity: Extended Relationality and Distributed Subjectivity (Moderation by Malte C. Gruber) • 16.00-16.45 Distributed Subjectivity? How the Law in the Anthropocene Stretches the Concept of Legal Subjectivity (Michael Kalis , IKEM Institute for climate protection, energy and mobility & University of Greifswald) • 16.45-17.30 From Eco-Colonialists to Cosmic Persons? – Thoughts on (Post-)Human Legal Subjectivity (Berit Völzmann , Humboldt University Berlin)
17.30-18.00	Coffee Break
18.00-19.00	Roundtable: Reconsidering Legal Subjectivity In and Through the Anthropocene with Laura Affolter (University of Hamburg), Christoph Burchard (Normative Orders & Goethe University Frankfurt), Thomas Scheffer (Goethe University Frankfurt), Anna-Lena Wolf (MPI for Social Anthropology)
19.30	Dinner (due to limited capacity in the off-campus venue only for members of the research network and contributing participants)

Friday, 28th November 2025 (→ Guesthouse Frauenlobstraße 1)

9.00-10.30 Panel IV. Rituals, Deity and the Hindu Joint Family: Neglected Perspectives on Legal Subjectivity (Moderation by Anna-Lena Wolf)

- 09.00-09.45 Deity as Juristic Person and the Hindu Joint Family as Corporate Entity: Legal Subjectivity and Innovations in Post-Colonial India (Anindita Chakrabarti, Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur)
- 09.45-10.30 Rituals as Rights' Infrastructure: Legal Subjectivity, Cosmopolitics, and Environmental Protection in Mongolia's Sacred Mountains (Bayar Dashpurev, MPI for Social Anthropology)

10.30-11.00 Coffee Break

11.00-12.30 Panel V. Who is In-/Excluded? Addressees of Legal Subjectivity (Moderation by Susanne Krasmann)

- 11.00-11.45 In the Shadow of the Symbol – How Does the Discourse on the Expansion of Legal Subjectivity Engage with Global Trends of Rights Deprivation? (Katrin Höffler, Jan-Ulrich Dittmer [speaker] & Felix Butz, Humboldt University Berlin)
- 11.45-12.30 Law Beyond the Living: Future Generations (Ana-Marija Rus, University of Ljubljana)

12.30-13.30 Lunch Break

13.30-15.00 Panel VI. Imaginaries and Futures: Between Dystopia and Improbable Utopia (Moderation by Alina Wandelt)

- 13.30-14.15 Dystopia as Method: On the Legal Objectivation of Subjectivity in the Anthropocene (Ana Oliveira, University of Coimbra)
- 14.15-15.00 Legal Subject Formation in the Anthropocene (Thomas Scheffer, Goethe University Frankfurt)

15.00-15.30 Coffee Break

15.30-16.00 Summary & Final Discussion

END